

GC Session 2020 Travel Insurance

PLEASE NOTE that official delegates to the session will have this insurance purchased for them and their spouse by the General Conference. All other dependents will need to buy their own insurance.

As you plan for the 2020 General Conference Session in Indianapolis, it is important to budget for the cost of travel insurance. Please plan to purchase this insurance for all delegates, guests, visitors, staff and exhibitors traveling to the session.

ELIGIBILITY FOR COVERAGE

GC Session 2020 Travel Insurance is for individuals—delegates, guests, visitors, staff and exhibitors—who are attending GC Session 2020 and have paid the premium for benefits and coverage.

Class I — All approved Non-U.S. based delegates, guests, visitors, staff and exhibitors who have purchased coverage for attending the General Conference Session.

Class II — All approved U.S. based delegates, guests, visitors, staff and exhibitors who have purchased coverage for attending the General Conference Session.

Coverage includes the actual days of the session and can be selected as early as June 1 to as late as August 11 with a maximum of 30 days total. If you plan to travel beyond that date range, we recommend you purchase a Short-Term Travel policy for additional days. Both Short-Term Travel insurance and the GC Session 2020 Travel Insurance can be purchased through Adventist Risk Management, Inc. at adventistrisk.org.
