ELIGIBILITY FOR COVERAGE

GC Session 2022 Travel Insurance is for individuals—delegates, guests, visitors, and staff—who are attending GC Session 2022 and have paid the premium for benefits and coverage.

Class I — All approved Non-U.S. based delegates, guests, visitors, and staff who have purchased coverage for attending the General Conference Session. Spouse and Dependent Children of Class I can purchase coverage.

Class II — All approved U.S. based delegates, guests, visitors, and staff who have purchased coverage for attending the General Conference Session. Spouse and Dependent Children of Class II can purchase coverage.

As you plan for the 2022 General Conference Session in St. Louis, it is important to budget for the cost of travel insurance. Please plan to purchase this insurance for all delegates, guests, visitors, and staff travelling to the session.

GC Session 2022 Travel Insurance can be purchased at adventistrisk.org

Coverage includes the actual days of the session and can be selected as early as 25 May to 23 June to include a maximum of 10 days for personal deviation. If you plan to travel beyond that date range, we recommend you purchase a Short-Term Travel policy for additional days. Both Short-Term Travel insurance and the GC Session 2022 Travel Insurance can be purchased through Adventist Risk Management, Inc. adventistrisk.org.
